Mr. Eric H. Warburg

Dear Eric:

Thanks for your note of the 17th about [redacted] et al. I agree with your analysis. The matter is being studied.

I hope we can get together before you push off to Europe on 17 July. There are many things I should like to talk over with you at great length.

Sincerely,

ALLEN W. DULLES

Mr. Eric M. Warburg

Dear Eric:

25X1 Many thanks for your letter of June 7. I have received a letter from [redacted] and have sent it around to several of his friends here. Strictly confidentially, he did not prove too 25X1 practical an operator during the period that I was in touch with him [redacted] though personally I had the greatest affection for him. Since then he has, so far as I know, not been able to settle down to anything very constructive and I frankly have some doubts but if you can resolve them I should be very glad to make another try.

25X1 I have noted [redacted] address and am dropping him a line.

K1 We also had a message via [redacted] from friend A to the same effect as the word you have sent me. We are looking into the project, it is interesting but vastly complicated.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
